General Meeting of Shareholders PROCEDURE

for holding an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders for early termination of powers of the Supervisory Board

1. This procedure was developed in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On the protection of the rights of Joint Stock Companies and Shareholders" in order to provide practical assistance to shareholders in protecting their rights to participate in the management of a joint-stock company, not to harm their interests due to insufficient knowledge of the current powers of the joint-stock company society and bad governance.
2. The grounds for convening an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders on the issue of early termination of the activities of the supervisory board are:
 - Decision of the Supervisory Board;
 - Requirement of the audit commission of the company or the auditor;
 - The claim of a shareholder (shareholders) who owns at least five percent of the company's voting shares as of the date of the claim.
3. The grounds for the request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders on the above issues are:
 - Failure to comply with the legal acts of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the charter of the company, decisions of the General Meeting of shareholders;
 - Damage to society, damage to the property rights of shareholders, including a serious deterioration in production and financial activities, loss of profit and profitability, loss of production and sales of products, works, services due to unreasonable reduction in volume;
 - The presence of signs of economic insolvency (bankruptcy) of the company or the risk of their occurrence, stable debt to the state budget, extra-budgetary funds for the payment of wages to employees;
 - Failure by members of the Supervisory Board to fulfill their duties and responsibilities, a cold-blooded attitude to their duties, a complete lack of activity.

4. The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is submitted to the supervisory board indicating specific grounds and issues for inclusion in the agenda of the meeting.
5. In addition to the issue of early termination of the powers of the supervisory board, the request to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders must contain a separate proposal to include in the agenda the issue of electing a new member of the supervisory board.
6. In cases where a shareholder (shareholders) has received a request to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, it must contain the name (name) of the shareholder (shareholders) requiring the convening of the meeting, indicating the number, type of shares owned by the shareholder
7. The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders shall be signed by the person (s) requesting it.
8. The Supervisory Board of the company is not entitled to make changes to the definition of issues on the agenda of an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and must, no later than thirty days from the date of presentation of a written request, decide to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or, within ten days from the date of presentation of a request, to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or refusal to convene a meeting.
9. The decision of the supervisory board of the company to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or a reasoned decision to refuse to convene such a meeting shall be sent to persons requiring the convening of a meeting no later than three working days from the date of its adoption.
10. The decision of the Supervisory Board of the Company to refuse to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders may be appealed to the court. If the Company's Supervisory Board fails to make a decision to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders within the time period established by law, or if it decides to refuse to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders, shareholders may be convened by persons requiring its convening. In such cases, the costs associated with the preparation of the General Meeting of shareholders and its holding may be covered at the expense of the company's funds by decision of the General Meeting of shareholders.
